Meet our New Ukrainian Family- Alpha Weekend

My heart is full of love for each of these beautiful souls.

KNOW that you are loved

KNOW that you are cared for

KNOW that you belong

"Not because of who you are but because of who HE is." John 3:16 . KNOW that you are family

God showed me how HIS universal language, LOVE needs no translation when the human language barrier strikes. I am in awe and in deep gratitude for all the lives changed and God's capacity to save lives in our broken world. HE is LOVE!

Alpha Vision / Launch Event in Croatia

The Management of Cru International in Croatia found out about Alpha and was immediately enthusiastic. "This will open the doors to the Catholic Church for us." So I was invited to contribute to the first Alpha vision day for church leaders in Zagreb.

When strangers turn into family, a common vision turns into reality, and servant hearts look arms together and serve alongside, there is so much energy, joy and thankfulness!

We stand for unity, radical hospitality, and serving the local church, and we strive to reflect God's love in the work we get to do through our ministries.

Operation Christmas | 30 shoeboxes to a child in need on your behalf

Know that YOU matter; know that YOU are loved. Even on those days when you feel overlooked, lost, alone, confused, hurt, or betrayed, know that you belong in this life just as much as anyone else, no matter how others see you or how you see yourself.

Whether you are having the most purpose-driven week or you feel like you are falling apart, there are signs of strength and movement with every breath you breathe. So take heart, breathe deep. Give yourself grace even before things fall in place.

You are wrapped in endless, boundless grace in the unknown. And remember to be still; God will fight for you.

Meet Vanessa - my Missionpartner

My name is Vanessa, and I live in Vancouver, BC, Canada. I met Sandra & Enrico through the Alpha course. For the last six years, Jesus and His people have radically transformed my life. Before this, I was always impatient and annoyed and desperately seeking approval from others.

Until six years ago, I lived life the best way I knew how: desperately seeking approval and gaining acceptance from others. This looked like me pretending to be someone I'm not, doing things I wasn't proud of, and even denying my shortcomings. Hurt people hurt people, and I did exactly that...until I realized that the way I was living was no longer viable and that I desperately needed Jesus to save me from the hurt I was causing myself, along with those I truly cared about.

I used to feel lonely all the time and would cry out to God for genuine, loving friendships in my life; nothing makes me happier than spending time with people who love having fun, eating and having deep conversations, and I am so thankful that Alpha had kickstarted my journey in obtaining just that through relationships with people like Sandra and Enrico!

I also love staying active through dance, going for outdoor walks by the water/hikes in the woods and mountains and skating. Exploring new restaurants and having a good cup of tea and sweets with friends are also one of my favourite ways to spend my free time. God is really amazing, and I see so much beauty all around me — whether it's through food, nature, or the different types of friends He's blessed me with.

I became a Mission Partner because I have witnessed firsthand how radically God has changed Sandra's life and how on fire she has remained since giving her life to Jesus. She goes all in on all she does, and I knew that she would do all the same for God through Alpha halfway across the world!

I am hopeful and expectant that thousands or more will be impacted by Sandra's authenticity and enthusiasm for Jesus! Every day, I am reminded how badly I need God in my life, and though things may not get "easier," they do get better because I know He is with me, always. My faith is the most important thing in my life, and I love sharing about all that God's done in my life and having friends like Sandra who share that exact passion and is living it out through her career :)

In one word, how does all of the above make you feel? Gratitude

Sandra- the student

First semester of my Master in Ministry

Approaching the end of my first semester at the TNU university. I would not have believed it that this is where I flourish the most. God called me to go deeper and do the uncomfortable stuff to grow and serve better. I knew, and I was scared. I had anxiety attacks the night before my semester kick-off 3 months ago.

And now, the Spirit has been unlocking gifts and a hunger in me that I had no clue about. Ok, my professor is extremely encouraging while this "mature" lady studies with younger pastors. I learn so much from my fellow students. The Lord works in mysterious ways; I am unleashedhahaha.

Shoutout to Cedric

After being recruited into the leadership officer pool of the Swiss army in the summer, Cedric successfully promote from Sergeant to Officer. This was physical, mental and emotional craziness that he demonstrated. He is a natural leader and has grown so much. I honestly would trust him with my life and follow his lead & care. He is a fierce protector of the vulnerable, stands up for justice and the truth and is a quick-witted, sharp thinker and action-taker. This, paired with his Social skills, generous and kind heart, makes him one kind of a leader, future husband, friend, and the best son parents could have ever asked for.

Happy Holiday Season from our family to yours

We love you! Thank you for doing life with us. Thank you for locking arms with me on this mission of making Jesus known through Alpha in every nation by partnering up with the local church all over the Globe.
